Next page is letter 3

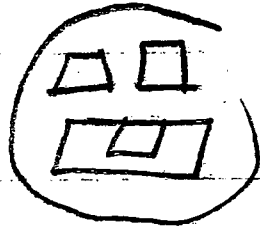

Dear Miley,

I'm proud to say I'm now able to send you letters, huray! I'm so happy now you can learn so much about me it's great. So I was thinking maybe I send you letters and you can write letters to Katie and she can read it to me cause I can't get your letters yet but I will eventually. It's a pretty good plan so wish you and me luck, I'm so excited. I'm always thinking about you sweetheart and I'm also hoping you will think about me more. I also want to know if you be at my special or pleasured death. I'm hoping you are because I really want to meet you and would make me happy. I'm also going to tell you another story but you know some more things about me, so hear. I've got to write you. I forgot to tell you I like telling you stories lol.

Well to start off my mom was always, ^{always} worrying about me. She often made sure I ^{always} have contact with her. When I need something like a ride, ^{when I'm out on the streets} I always go out on my bike and when I get to my destination I would often call my mom ^{see} if she wanted anything like food or drinks.

She often ask for me to bring home bread and milk. So I did then one day I was riding my bike then all of sudden my chain popped off and my tire got stuck in the gear shifter and I fell off. The milk and bread fell off the end and it landed in the streets and got on our plus I had milk all over me which was really so fresh to smell. Mom could give me a ride. So she said yes, but instead of going home we went to golden curab and pizza french fries, plus I got new clothes. Before we went it was so good lol. That was a great time I had with my mom now about your mom please tell me.

I like to hear ^{all} about you and your family & meet the kids all for now so bye love  sincerely nikolas cs.12

Dear miley ☺

I been thinking of you all the time wondering what type of gift you are in real life. I am so glad that I can actually write to you and get to know you. it makes me happy I wish we could be together right now. But under these circumstances I don't think that will happen. But I have hope that one day we will. I think about the day that I'll meet you seeing your pretty face in person it fills me with excitement I feel like you really understand me and it fills me with great joy. I wonder sometimes if you will feel the same way, time will tell ☺. I know that you don't know this. But I am in search of long last my love, love that will last forever even when I am gone. I am hoping I find that, it been on my mind for a long time and I can't stop thinking about it. To be honest with you I think it will never happen. But I have hope. I wish like you could ^{have reason} ~~be~~ different. But its not and a part of me is wishing it end, End with the Death pentelc, letting someone inject me with long last sleep its kind of what I want. But I am unsure of myself so I'm just letting people save me from my self, saving me from something that I can never return from. when I think about it all I think ^{good is} ~~it~~ it will be forever darkness or a flash of light because when I close my eye all I see is pitch black and when I put pressure on my eyes I see white. so I don't know ~~really~~ I don't even know if there is a god just black or white. really, But give me hope and ~~wait~~ for you.

one day you ^{will} become my wife and that ^{with} we have kids that is a sign so write to me in your next letter wish to hear from your perspective and ~~never~~ never stop thinking about you

Dear miley,

It's been a couple of weeks now haven't seen katie so might as well write a letter to your pretty cute face. I got some things to tell you about to start off I got new glasses they help me see far because I'm near sided and the last pair I had broke off so I have new ones, they look like glasses from 1960's so don't laugh at them when you see me on TV plus they're now allowing me to shave yagay!! I really wanted to shave for a while now because I gotten hairy and I don't like hair on my body but I can't shave anywhere else but my face which sucks cause I'm really hairy. They keep a close eye on me because the last inmate to shave cut off his junk. it's a pretty fucked up story the guy got angry at a deputy so he decided to cut it off and flush it down the toilet it's mess up. Anyways on to other news the deputies are having me paint the day room today I'm very excited, I never really painted anything except for the time I painted a doll which didn't end well. Let's say I painted too much and it got all over the floor.
Well I think I can paint the day room so with me LUCK. oh you did you hear what happened in the pan handle of florida it's pretty nasty they got hit hard with a category 4 hurricane almost a five the florida government send ALOT help up there tho I hope the people up there are all right and they get their homes repaired. oh yea also my brother is now allowed to visit me he's doing really well I wish he go back to school to get his ~~id~~ degree but he's dealing with a lawsuit which hasn't gotten anywhere and my dog is now disabled she's really old and she now has a wheelchair I feel bad because we had her since she was a pup. but we can't stop her from ageing so let's do the best we can for her and it makes me happy. (C) Zack also told me he drives. It's crazy to think that he's driving legal lol I always wanted to drive I'm not good at it but with you I bet anything possible.

Zack also saw the Venom movie I really want to see it, me and Zack were huge fans of Symbiotes and Spider Man when we were kids. I really want to see it when I go to prison or Death Row hopeful not Death Row So wish me LUCK. Well thats about everything thats going on with me let me know how your doing like do feel any better since you went to the doctors let me know love, sincerely Nikolay GVL → Oh you one more thing do you like hairy guys or shaved guys lol its a weird question I am just curious so let me know love

Dear Miley,

I bet your wondering why I am writing to you again well couldn't help myself ^{because} my mind is on you. And I wanna tell you a little bit about myself like what my interests ^{are} hobbies and stuff like that so lets begin.

Well to start out I ~~was~~ always found myself in trouble with neighbors, school ~~and~~ at home it was ~~hard~~, when I was thirteen I started acting out more often in school, I used to pull the fire alarms, ^{gully} teachers, and break stuff ^{like} I kicked in a window because the kids wouldn't let in and I poured ice cream all over the floors in 7th grade on my teacher's birthday it was funny the teacher was upset that they had to scrap the ice cream off the floor with a shovel and I got kicked out of school. I also use a air horn over a loud speaker scaring shit out of everyone plus I flicked a bottle cap at a teacher - hitting her in the eye I was a bad kid. The only reason why I was a bad ^{kid} was because I wanted attention and a girlfriend. It was really lonely and I didn't get out much like most wouldn't take us places and everyone had phones but me so I couldn't really interact with anyone. ^{it} was in zone. When I went to school for kids with difficulties I wouldn't say I was lonely but scared because they were crazy like me. Like I tried giving money to this guy because he didn't have any money ^{to} buy lunch so he attacked me for no reason and took my money. And then was this ^{one} guy who attacked me because he thought I took a picture of him but I didn't. It wasn't like bad but ^{it} made some ^{good} friends.

Life

At the school I made a friend his name was blaze he was a goofy character like me and his mom was over protective unlike my mom who didnt like going out much, I loved ~~her~~ ^{my mom} didnt get me wrong she bought me my first pellet gun when I was 15 and bought me video games when I was young. ~~her~~ I remember my first game console it was a Atari original and a game cube on boy did I have fun me and zack used to play ^{lego} star wars. It was fun and on the atari we used to play star wars bubble front, U.S Army garage Hale and gra. I didnt go out much when I was a boy but I had good times playing video games I didnt really explore myself until I was 12 I used to play in the back yard with my dogs, ~~and~~ ^{and} zack. zack is his own character completely different he likes shabing - well back to the story I used to do all kinds of things in the back yard I built fires, ant hills with knife and play pine cone war with zack. I didnt really tried exploring like traveling to the park until mom bought me a bike when I ^{was} 13 I traveled all over the place within the city. I traveled to walmart alot and steal with zack. Zack is crazy good at stealing to am I but we stopped when we were 15 cuz we got older we got into different things my thing was shooting at you know I got my first pellet gun when I was 14 years old it was a m4-177 pellet gun / bb gun it was a pump action gun not alot of power I used it to hunt birds and squirrels ^{squirrels or squirrels} that was this one squirrel that I tried getting for a long time her name was half tale and how I know it was a girl is because I checked its who has a she was a first little one next page

I would watch her hanging around the plantices always Eating nuts, when I walk near she would turn over to other trees making her way to the neighbors yard it wasn't viable I got into jobs that my shooting skills improved I was in the marksmanship team in stone men douglaws we used to shoot pellet guns in the class room it was really fun we set up targets the size of quarters I was really good at it I hit the target around the 9 area of the bullz eye.
When I got home I go outside and shoot bottles with ^{the} pellet gun I did not get pellet gun until I was 15 years old When I first got it I did not know how to use it I accidentally shot it in the house and I scared my mom I figured out how

I went to use it and my first marksmanship competition on 27 January 2015

I scored a 215 out of 300 I got a medal from the competition I wish I could show you I bet you be impress MUM WAS VERY HAPPY WHEN I won that medal I feel best proud mom started to get grumpy when I was 17 which I was working by then. I was in lawn mowing business I used to cut trees and mow lawns I travel all over the place

I was worried about mom ^{the} because she always expect me to get hurt if she would be protective and concern about me like I had with my dad if I was in a relations hip about I wont tell you about it because it brings up memories ^{so} I was working like crazy making money about

$215.00 a week, it was pretty good I ate alot more to I would buy pizza, Burger King, food from the store it was good ^{also} I used buy lots of treats for the pups ^{PLUS} I buy things for mom to end give money to back - how was very nice oh you'd forget back then but he is now we keep it tight it's almost ~~unlawful~~ rule I'm really excited because I plan on buying a lot of candy like Mike and ~~hardly~~ ^{also} last year I wore my body armor and ballistic helmet ^{it} was a bit trick or treating with Rob ^{and} we got a lot of candy it was a ~~big~~ ^{big} day that ~~was~~ ^{was} in the hospital 5. this would be the first year with Mom gone it's a big deal for me. I still miss her but I'm pulling through. well let's see Oh yes I am ~~almost~~ done with language arts in my 6th book I'm going to take the test soon I'm pretty nervous. if you could I would like some tips my dear, it would be very helpful. my grades in school were bad that year I typically ^{struggled} hard and fail a test ^{because} my ^{memories} ~~memories~~ are that good so I try re-taking my test over and over again until I get it right. I been transferred to different schools over the years ^{two} from middle school to high school it was difficult but I tried my best with my studying and understanding of work I was doing in those schools it didn't work I would get in trouble and fail some classes but I always try again. right now I'm studying to take my grad test that I plan to pass the test so I can graduate.

I wish I could leave jail to I hate to hear it sucks they wake me up 4 times a night and I can't get any sleep it sucks. I wish I could live in the UK with you I imagine it would be nice well I have to wrap up until next time. love you sincerely, ~~Nikolas~~

Dear Miley,

I am writing to you again because I can't stop thinking about YOU Sweet heart lol.

I am also writing to you because I am happy to hear that your becoming a historian, I think that's great news I'm happy for you, tell Liam, Sybi and ALSO to my sister. I know you've gotten in contact with her and I'm glad that you did get in contact with her cause now I can ask you how she's doing and it makes me happy oh yes ALSO to let you know I'm almost done with language art's in school in class, hopefully I get a higher score on the ged test I think I am going to pass I can't wait to find out. ALSO I want to tell you a funny story about me and Zack so hear we go

When Zack and I were living in parkland we used to hang out at the pool house we used to chat about what we were doing in our lives and one night we were in the spa and we heard some rustling in the bushes so we decided to see what was over there and what we found was 2 fellows lol I want you to guess what they were doing Haha!!! to our surprise they were making love with each other some and Zack started laughing at the coons cause they were making love to each other and we all screamed at them to see what they would do but they just stared at us so we had some food and tossed the food to them to our surprise they started fighting. we were shocked, like how could you do that to your lover Haha!!! I guess it was because of the food but they started biting and scratching each other it was pretty nasty so me and Zack threw a big ass rock at them and they got scared and ran away. it was really weird and funny you would of laughed

Lol so I tried telling you a story I want to hear one from you

PLEASE write ~~me one~~ me one in your next letter. thank you for sending my flowers + ~~my mother's~~ my mother's I love I can't thank you enough. also

Dear Miley,

Like I said yesterday I'll write to you today, I'm always thinking about you and what your doing, I hope you are feeling well and are happy & not your wondering how I'm doing, right now, well right now I'm watching tv and writing to you but that's not what you were expecting me to say. How am I feeling well for one I feel like a fat ass lol it's because I been eating alot and I gain a couple of pounds. I'm trying not to eat so much but its not working. I promise that I will not gain any more weight and I cut off the food starting now lol oh yea I almost forgot I want to tell you another story this time tho it's about me it's a pretty long story but hear we go 😊

Back in January of this year me and my buddies were hanging out smoking weed and hanging around drinking alcohol around a fire it was fun we talk each other how our wife is going and talked about girls lol p.s I would of talked about you alot if I had known you before so anyways we end up shooting our pellet guns at some targets at some little ones not very big but it was hell of fun tho and I got the most hits on the target but after words when we were done shooting he went back to his house had into my room and watched some tv and ate some food after that I kinda showed them my gun collection I had all sorts of fancy guns probably shouldn't mention it but I showed them my new gun which was a Air Pistol pump action .177 pellet gun you probably don't know what that is but I handed my gun to Hunter and he was messing around with it trying to figure out how the components work & then all of the sudden it shot out and I got shot in my stomach it hurt like crazy and I fell to the ground and got back up and I was so mad it was going to punch Hunter but I turn around and punched my gun safe instead and in that moment I felt a ~~terrible~~ terrible pain in my hand I didn't realize it until later that I learned I broke my hand

And I had to get a cast but before that at the moment I was really angry and when I punched my safe I left a dent in it. It was pretty smelly hardly noticeable but the guys started laughing at me so I got pissed off and open my gun safe and took out my AK-47 ^{and I} and I'm going out to shoot at the water they got scared because they thought I would shoot myself but I wasn't so I went outside carrying my gun and I notice my hand was still hurting but I managed to handle my gun and I shot 2 rounds at the water and I heard hunter say "dump the mag". But I couldn't because I only had two rounds left so there was 10 I came back inside and told them I was done shooting and I put my gun back in my gun safe and I came out with my car's ringing and said to the guys "I need some ice".
So I got me a bag full of ice and I put it on my hand it felt like frozen acid!! So I said to the guys "I think I broke my hand" it turns out I did break my hand. I went to the mini clinic the next day to verify that it was broken and it was, there when the doc told me I had to see a bone doctor because it was a boxer fracture and I needed a cast so I got one and wore it for a week then I decided to use my knife to cut it off and I did cut off. The next cast I got was pretty cool it had red and black spiral lines you would think it was cool anyway I cut ^{the new cast} ~~the cast~~ with ^{some} box cutters. It was really easy cutting it off but my hand was pretty heated and I was happy well that's the end of my story and I love you and see ^{you} around Sincerely, Nikolai's Cruz P.S. I'm not very good at writing letters."

Dear Miley,

I love writing to you and that's why I'm writing to you again I hope you got the last letter and I have some questions for you in this letter so here we go so Miley my question to you is do you want children? I really want children I want 3 boys and girls, maybe more lol. The boys names will be Kalashnikov, Murkov, Lemington and my wife can name the girls. I always wanted children. When I was living with Yeksa I used to play with her son and teach him how to fish I viewed him as one of my own. I really want a son I imagine it, dream it, and I also want a family. Even if I'm locked up. I hope you have the same feelings of wanting a family and having kids. Another question I have for you is have you read the book called the Drifter? I hope you did, I enjoyed it a lot. Oh also I want to know what's your favorite holiday. My favorite holiday is Fourth of July I love fire works and I the explosions it's super fun. I want to know if you guys got different holidays please let me know. I also want to know is how did you get those slugs that's a interesting pet I have ~~to~~ you should get more lol!! And another question I have for you is how many people do you have who live ^{ing} with you? Katie says you take in homeless people and I'm happy for you do I'm just curious so please let me know. I also have some bad news one of my dogs died I feel sad since she died and mother pining it sucks but it happens. May she RIP. I'm trying not to let it affect me, I'm ok 😊 Well that's about it my dear. I'll come up with some more questions in my next letter. Good bye and I love you. Sincerely VIKOLAS CRUZ

Dear Miley,

Happy halloween Babe!! I Hope you're celebrating because seem I always celebrate ^{ing halloween} and you should as well I don't know how it is in the UK but it's very popular here in america. THIS will be the first year we don't Don't go trick or treating unfortunately but I always have my memories especially from last year last year I went out looking like a solider. It was a cool outfit I pretty much wore body armor and a ballistic helmet and had kobe with me and we got lots of candy it was fun but sad at the same time because mom was in the hospital and Zack didn't know what to do, we called the hospital a couple of times seeing how she was doing and it wasn't good she ended up being on life support the next day and ended up dying 😞 I keep my memories of her and this will be the first year without her so I'm a bit sad about it but ^{I'm} holding strong. I wonder how Liam is doing ^{me} how he's doing please I'm looking forward to finding out how he's ^{doing} I think of him but not much as I think about you. you should send kobe a picture of both of you together that would it would be nice I like see you both in a picture and I would like to see anyways today I bought lots of candy and about to eat it and no I'm not going to split my kit kats I like ^{eating} eating them whole haha! 😊 I bought some breath mints as well because I like the taste of it.

so anyways I'm going to tell you another story about me so hear we go

Ha Ha I fooled you Honey I tell you another story tomorrow because it's a bit ^{early} today and I'm kinda tired so I'll write to you tomorrow well I love you and I'm always

DEAR MILKY,

I hope you had a great day yesterday because it was Halloween.
 As you might know I got a lot of candy it was candy massaly it would to know lol!! So I'm probably going to see a dentist because of all the candy ^{I ate so} wish me luck ^{also} I'm a little upset ^{about} ~~it~~ ^{not} finishing out that my dog ~~die~~ but I'm holding strong, Today is also the day that my mother died. This is my first year without her so this is new to me. I'm still a little shocked to know that today is the day she died. I don't know what I should do in regards to my mother dying but I'll figure something out. So anyway how's Roger doing I bet he's a pretty active dog. Does Roger bark or anything at the cats? Kolo Barks and chase cats all the time, but I don't know about Roger so let me know 😊 oh yeah I forgot to ask ^{you} how's the weather up there were you at? here in Florida we had a cold front it lasted about two days but it went away. I have another question for you I'm just curious to hear the question is you father still alive or is he dead? and if he is alive did he leave you with no contacts or a ^{you} ~~able~~ to get in contact with him please let me know. oh yeah to let you know I did 100 sit-ups yesterday my plan is to get into physical shape for you and ~~possible~~ six pack so wish me luck!!! oh yeah also hear in america there's a election going on it's pretty big deal it involves getting new governors for each state and new congress men. I'm hoping in my state that the governor will be Ron disantobias I can't spell his name but I know he's republican and I'm voting for him - I believe if we get a Democratic governor he will take away our rights and hope that won't happen so please pray. DRAB RON WINS.

Oh yes also you probably heard also that there was a mass shooting in Pittsburgh. I put my heart out to these victims and to the shooter because I believe they need all the support they can get.

Well that's about all that's going on, I tell you mess in the mess better tomorrow. Well I love you always and I'll write you next time so good bye 😊 Sincerely: M. Hayes

3000 MILES

I hope your day is going well today, as Monday is going well.

I did some exercises early in the morning about 7:30. I did 10 sit-ups, 100 burpees, and 30 planks. It went well. I used to do sit-ups and not wanting to open to the idea of exercising but I did open up and happy to say I lost some weight. I'm trying to hit 140 or 135 I have a long way to go. So with me Lulka on Gen I bet you wondering about me like what are my interest so I'll tell you later we go well for one I like to say I'm very interested in the military I always wanted to join the US Army and be apart of the 87 unit, it was something I wanted to do but it never happened I also like helping out the homeless I gave a homeless veteran a cheese burger and some fries he didn't really service but he was stationed in Vietnam so helping him out made me happy. I also love the outdoors, I love camping, hunting and fishing it's been a thing for me since I was 15.

oh I also like girls with red hair and a positive outlook on life.  I'm looking for you . What else do I like oh you I'm always second amendment supporter even tho I'm here in jail for being on the wrong side of the law I still believe it's a special right to have and I try to encourage everyone including you to take part in it. ^{and} when you come to America OK, please, and thanks . Well what else hmm, oh you!! you might know I really want kids I think of it all the time, you know the joy they bring and how you could raise them, you know.  lol, so anyways my favorite color is Army green and woodland camo I think their cool colors and I like the way it looks. my favorite food is baby back ribs with lots of barbecue sauce and mash potatoes. I like wearing service boots and running shoes. I also like exercising a lot on the streets and I don't mind the Florida weather. you probably will mind the weather and you'll hate the mosquitoes on you + there are a lot of tomb near in Florida so watch out because Roger could cut one and end up dying so be careful. Well that's all I could think about I'll write to you tomorrow and come up with more things to talk about, so bye love (U) Sincerely, NIKOLAS CRUZ.

Dear Miley:

I love writing ^{to} you and I think about you alot, I'm really looking forward to meeting you, I can't wait also I was wondering if you be interested in marriage when the time's come it won't be for a long time but would you be interested? I feel like we make a great family together with lots of kids I imagine it every day, that's whats keeping me strong also I'm not very good at talking to girls 😊 LOL Sorry if I'm to front forward please forgive me, I just really want to be with some one like you, even if were miles away from each other. I hope you can understand it's because of my mother I feel like I'll never be loved and I'll die alone 😞. ~~please~~ Sorry you you see I'm to front forward I don't know what's wrong with me, maybe I should get the death penalty, I dk, I just, want love...

Well I'm a bit getting emotional I'll write to you tomorrow with a whole bunch of stories Bye... Love.

Dear Mileg,

I wrote you earlier but I wanted to write to you again, so you hear it is well for one thing I'm watching tv on channel 33. The show is family feud it's a game show nothing special. I can't watch AHS but I can watch HOLLY'S KITCHEN at least. I bet your wondering what life in jail is like well for one thing its very boring nothing to do really thats why I watch tv and do home work. Its really easy to gain weight in here so thats why im trying to lose weight. There is also a bunch of doctors that come in around 7:30, 9:30 at night. Dear HARRY

I'm having some issues working out because I'm not doing at all I'm really doing is 100 sit-ups a day but I haven't really noticed it working but I'll keep trying, as you might know I weigh 160 unfortunately but when I get to prison I'll do my best at working out. So anyways today is Saturday and it means that it is football day Harry, I hate football I don't think much of it, all it really is, is throwing a ball around I rather watch the NFL than football that's how much I dislike it. So what's your favorite sport is it soccer or something else? please let me know. Harry your probably wondering what's my favorite sport is well it hunting, and professional bull riding I think its interesting. I wish I could also be out in the country land, growing crops and living outdoors you know what? Oh you I forgot to ask you do you celebrate thanksgiving? if so you should by a turkey and cook it in BBQ sauce it tastes really good, darling me and my friend cooked at his cabin here in Florida it taste so good, you would of loved it sweetie I'll talk more about the cabin the cabin out in the everglades is really the only place could be myself and not worry about anything besides animals and insects. it's really fun camping out in the everglades. there is so much life and freedom you experience. I wish you could experience it with me. maybe one day. it's really pretty out there as well. there's open prairies to walk thru all for now, I'll talk more in my next letter to you love!

Dear, Mike

I have some more stories to tell you so hear we go, when I was 16 years old I went to Walmart. It was an ordinary day nothing really special but I went to the back of the store to check out the pellets guns and there was this guy in a hoodie checking out the ammo. So I went over looking for pellet gun ammo and asked the guy if they had any .177 pellet gun ammo and he said "no" and so ~~he~~ ^{he} asked me if they sell any .25 sets and I said "no" and so he ~~started~~ ^{started} a conversation with me for like 5 or 10 minutes and then he said "I need a 22 Auto for my gun I had" and I said "you have it on you, can I see?" so he showed it to me and I started laughing out of fear but he said I was cool and he told me he had a card and it was wanted it and said yes - we went to the bathroom and he gave me a ^{he} "free" for first buyers. We exchange each other contact information but I never called and I got free weed lol. With I could tell the story a little bit better but oh well. more off topic I get your wondering when I eat for lunch so I'll tell you, I eat Beans sandwiches and pseudo buttermilk Apple jelly with bag of chips, cookies and apples 😊 it's not that bad to be honest 😊 well that's all for now so bye, bye  Sincerely, NIKOLAS Cruz

Dear Miley,

Today is the big day were finally going to see who's going to win the election for Florida, oh boy I hope it goes well today, I'm praying we don't lose any rights or Amendments in Florida, I'm going to watch the results later tonight around 8:00. What are the elections like in the UK? ^{there} are any elections that go on over there? I always imagine it to be ~~like~~ ^{none} at all over there because you live in a small country, but I could be wrong or you by the way what's the news like over there? is it like hour with a bunch of lies or are they honest? PLEASE let me know I hear there's a immigration problem over there like people coming from all over the place, just over flowing to the European country. I feel like there is a reason why were trying to stop immigration and that's right, they attract people, destroy property's and spread diseases. It's a big issue I hear happening over there. I'm waiting for the moment when whole society collapses because of one of these issues. so I'm wondering what do you think please let me know about this subject in the next letter.

Well that's all for now love, talk to ^{you} next time 😊 Sincerely so hear we go. →

When I was living in Larkland I would often travel to my friends house and we go fishing, we often catch bass but ~~one day~~ but one day we ~~had~~ this baby ~~thing~~ but ~~it~~ it was ~~under~~ ~~the~~ ~~water~~ ~~at~~ ~~the~~ ~~end~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~line~~ so I threw my bait towards it and it was under water, my bait was showing on top of the water for about a minute, then all of sudden I felt something and my bait was under water so I grabbed my reel in and I was feeling it and to my surprise I caught the gator! It was a cute little thing about the size of my arm's - I pull it in and I put it on the table when I realize that it was in its eye. So me and my friend both folded it and held it in our hands. It was really scary but we looked at it and pulled out the hook and I was ~~scared~~ and it took off never to be seen again. It was a good day of fishing the end. Well, love you all for now, I love you and I'll try to see you tomorrow, so bye, bye. Sincerely Nikolus Cruz

Dear Miley,

Today is Saturday and I'm writing to you again because life has it I can't help myself lol. I'm watching tv and eating lunch as well. I wonder what your mornings like so please tell me in your next letter, also the elections are still going on and I'm hoping Rick Scott wins, I ~~have~~ ^{have} a lot of letters for you too, I hope you can understand them because I'm not a good writer ^{islo}. Today is a special day because it's one of my days that I get to watch my tv shows like Animal World and Jewels of the Natural World. You find it interesting and you'll be hooked on it. I'm now going to tell you another story so hear we go.

It was January, 2016. I was helping hutter out at the cabin and I was mowing the lawn we both were using weed wackers and lawn mowers. So anyway hutter's dad named Steve told me I needed help so I can over and he handed me a sickle. I doubt you know what that is but it's a tool to cut away tall grass by hand and it's really handy. So I was cutting away with Steve watching away and all of a sudden I feel a strange pain in my hand it was really weird so I shake it off and then I notice a clump of flying dots in front of me so to my realization I was stung by a wasp and I described a nest so I said "BZZ!! BZZ!! fun for you I like!!" and I ran for it getting stung all over the place. Steve was laughing at me until he got stung

He was kinda drunk to but he started to run as well.
I didn't know it at the time but I jumped out of my boots and they were right in front of the nest. Hahaha, so I was running and ran into the cabin.
I was screaming in pain and took off my Llothel Hatha and Hunter was recording me but I think he deleted it so anyway I took off my cloth except for my underwear and I was knocking things over cause I was in pain and I all of sudden I felt a sharp pain in my right side at my chest so I look down and there was a wasp stung in my skin so I flicked it off and ran outside. Steve was back under ^{his} ~~the~~ eusebo, you know a casebo.
So I ran down stairs almost naked and they said their goooo and I clam down, so did Steve I went back up stairs at 6:30 a couple of minutes and got my clothes.
Steve was bitching at the bee's so me and him decided we got revenge so we took our shotgun and went back to the nest. I was kinda scared but I went and we were shooting the nest with bird shot it was a lot of fun until he handed me shotgun and I almost shot him!! but he told me not to shoot but I did and I almost hit him but thank god I didn't. He said to me to be more careful cause once I take a life there's nothing that can be undone.
Hunter was mad at me to but he got over it and that's about it. the nest got destroyed and I got my boots back so that's about it. well that's all for now sweetheart until next time; love nikolas cuz
